Activate MXSuite

After MXSuite is installed, you will be prompted to enter a registration number during the initial setup.

Enter the registration number and click on Activate to activate the license. License data will be collected online from the MXSuite license server, after which MXSuite will be ready for use.

> If you need to reactivate MXSuite in a later stage, you can do that manually when navigating to Administration > General settings > Activation